Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses Of Endowment Fund

Each year Fun Time Early Childhood Academy has to raise approximately half of its budgeted operating expenses from donors. The 50 more years fund has been established so that Fun Time will have an endowment fund that will ultimately provide income to meet a portion of the operating expenses of the academy. As the 50 more years fund grows the financial position of Fun Time will be secured. The Building Capital Reserve Fund will be used to purchase any additional assets needed by the academy and to replace the existing assets when required.

Part X - FASB ASC 740 Footnote

The Academy follows the income tax standard regarding the recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions. This guidance clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an organization's financial statements. The implementation of this standard had no impact on the academy's financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a - Explanation of Delegated Broad Authority to Committee

The summer executive committee consists of designated board members. The summer executive committee shall be responsible for the conduct of all corporate business in accordance with the policies formulated by the board of directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The draft of Form 990 is reviewed by the finance committee to ensure that it agrees to the annual financial statements and the audited financial statements. Any questions that are raised are resolved. The Form 990 is sent to the board for their review prior to the board meeting where the acceptance of the Form 990 will be voted on. Prior to voting to accept the Form 990, a presentation is made to the board where the Form 990 is explained to the board and any questions are answered. The board approves the 990 before filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest is an interested person. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board or executive committee. Any director may recuse himself or herself at any time from involvement in any decision or discussion in which the director believes he or she has or may have a conflict of interest, without going through the process for determining whether a conflict of interest exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the board or executive committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or executive committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. An interested person may make a presentation at the board or executive committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the board or executive committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the board or executive committee shall determine whether Fun Time Early Childhood Academy can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the board or executive committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in Fun Time Early Childhood Academy's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. The minutes of the board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the board's or executive committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed, and the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

Annual review and benchmarking to comparable organizations are performed. Fun Time Early Childhood Academy has only one highly compensated employee, the executive director. All officers, board members, committee chairs and committee members are non-compensated volunteers. A compensation adjustment for the executive director is determined each fiscal year by members of the Fun Time Early Childhood Academy administrative committee. Members of this committee are board members including the chair, the secretary, the treasurer, the assistant treasurer, and the immediate past chair. This committee is charged with the responsibility "for planning and implementing a feedback and review process for the executive director, including a regular means of communication between the committee and the executive director, and to conduct in annual evaluation of the executive director". As part of this process, the executive director prepares written goals and objectives for the fiscal year ahead, and the administrative committee reviews and approves these following discussion with the executive directors. At year end, the executive director prepares a written self-performance review and the administrative committee reviews this, and following a separate discussion/feedback session with the executive director, communicates an overall view of the executive director's performance and the proposed salary performance increase for the fiscal year ahead. Subsequently, the administrative committee reviews this outcome with the board of directors. The last review was performed in 2023.
