Each year Fun Time Early Childhood Academy has to raise approximately half of its budgeted operating expenses from donors. The 50 more years fund has been established so that Fun Time will have an endowment fund that will ultimately provide income to meet a portion of the operating expenses of the academy. As the 50 more years fund grows the financial position of Fun Time will be secured. The Building Capital Reserve Fund will be used to purchase any additional assets needed by the academy and to replace the existing assets when required.

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)Part X - FASB ASC 740 Footnote

The Academy follows the income tax standard regarding the recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions. This guidance clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an organization's financial statements. The implementation of this standard had no impact on the academy's financial statements.

Through a safe, nurturing, and academically enriching environment, we equip children aged birth to five with the foundational skills necessary for lifelong learning. During the fiscal year, we served up to 350 children across four locations, delivering a research-based curriculum aligned with state early learning standards. We utilize Teaching Strategies Gold Assessments to monitor each child's progress and implement individualized learning strategies that support cognitive, social-emotional, and physical development. Additionally, we maintained strategic community partnerships ensuring families have the support they need. As a highly rated provider through the Early Learning Coalition, with one location holding national accreditation, we remain dedicated to delivering the highest standards in early childhood education.
